Writing Our Legacy

Who We Were...We came to Regis College from different places and pasts. Each of us brought with us, written chapters of our lives. Despite our differences and individuality, we came together as the Class of 2010.

Who We Are...As a class, we will always be able to look back on our time here and reflect on the lessons and experiences that have made us who we are today. Our shared chapters at Regis will represent an end mark, as well as a new beginning.

Who We Will Be...Whether we continue on with our studies, begin new jobs, or travel down another path, each decision we make will become a part of our story. As we begin the new chapter of our lives, we will continue writing our own narratives. This yearbook is a reminder of the time we have spent here, with this class, and no matter the distance we travel or the journeys we take, we will always have our memories of Regis College.

Best of luck in all of your endeavors, as you continue, "Writing Our Legacy."

Dedication
Sister Ann Grady

The 2010 yearbook is dedicated to Sister Ann Grady. After 43 years of service to Regis College, the spring of 2010 will mark the last semester of her time at Regis. Her passion for communication and visual art have echoed throughout her time here. A love for photography has shaped both her visual communication and photography classes. As a dedicated professor, she has provided guidance and support to students under her care.

Sister Ann Grady's legacy will live on at Regis, though her career will end at the cumulation of the academic year. The banners featured around the Regis campus are the vision of Sister Grady. The six intertwining ribbons represent the values of Regis and will be the College's proud reminder of a wonderful educator. Countless students have embraced a passion for art and photography with the support of Sister Grady.

The 2010 yearbook staff would like to thank Sister Grady for her years of service and passion in teaching. As a member of the Sisters of St. Joseph, Sister Grady created an atmosphere that encouraged all students to embrace their inner creativity and pursue their passion. We wish her the best of luck in all of her journeys. Enjoy viewing the world through the lens of your camera! We hope you are able to take some time to, "sense, select and perceive" as much as you like.

The images on these pages were created by Sister Ann. Thank you again for all of your many contributions to Regis.

A Message from the President

Dear Regis College Class of 2010,

Your understanding of electronic media is intuitive and immediate. By taking "Writing Our Legacy" as your yearbook theme, you indicate something every college graduate should understand and that education strives for - that you yourselves, to some extent, can script your future. Regis values have empowered you in this way with confidence that you can, by your thoughts, decisions and actions, help to shape the present and future of your lives and those of others, even in the midst of the challenges of our times.

Indeed, you already have. You have come to maturity in the amazing first decade of the twenty-first century, post 9/11 and post-Katrina. Four years ago as most of you arrived at Regis, this respected women's college had just decided to go co-ed. You are the class that has overseen the seamless transition, beginning in 2007, and risen to the occasion, making it understood that the men on campus were Regis men, just as the women are Regis women.

This past year you have witnessed other great transitions as well, including major political upsets at the national and local levels, the incredible utility of text messaging, the Copenhagen Conference on Climate Change, and the earthquake in Haiti.

So go ahead. Write your legacy, knowing that what you do will both change you and bestow new avenues of change upon the next generation. We are proud of you and will always claim you as our own. Please be active as alums and give back so others may benefit. Regis faculty, staff, and administrators are confident in you, in decisions you make, in hopes you realize, and in the struggles you carry out to make your neighborhood and your world a more human and loving place.

I, for one, look forward to the enactment of your script, and send my best regard to all of your endeavors.

A Message from the Class and S.G.A Presidents

Dear Class of 2010,

An unknown author stated, "Life isn't about finding yourself. Life is about creating yourself." As graduation arrives and passes, I believe this quote has special meaning to our lives. We each chose Regis College for a different reason, but we all hoped to discover who we were as individuals. Through the sole searching endeavor, I think we have not only "found ourselves" but "created ourselves" through our choices and actions. None of us have sat idly by and watched the days and years pass; we have all been active participants in shaping our college careers. And who would really want it any other way?

Regis College, founded by the Sisters of St. Joseph, has given us a unique opportunity to take risks while being surrounded by a safe and caring environment. It sounds like an oxymoron, but somehow it fits for Regis. While a small campus and student body isn't always glamorous, we should always remind ourselves of the multitude of opportunities we have been afforded to create our identities.

Yet those identities are far from established. Think of Regis College as the foundation and the rest of your life at the layers and levels that rest on top. Only the sky is the limit. While life may be only what you make of it, it is also only what you create it to be. Our time at Regis has proven again and again that we are creative, imaginative students capable of withstanding great change and transition. From the first semester as the last all women's class to enter to graduation day as the second co-ed class to walk the stage, we have done a great job at creating the experiences we desire.

Whether you choose a life of travel, land your dream job, decide to continue school, settle down and marry, or another path, I hope you will embrace that choice with open arms. Feel confident that Regis College has prepared you to meet all of life's challenges. And do face these challenges head-on, because "life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the number of moments that take our breath away." This anonymous voice has given me much to contemplate during this momentous year and there is one thing that I am certain of – we all must enjoy life for as long as possible. Live it up not only this year, but also every year to follow. College may be some of the best years of our lives, but it shouldn't be the only best years.

These are my wishes for you. As you flip through these beautiful pages, always remember Regis College, your friends and memories here. Whether you say two thousand ten or twenty-ten, this is a great year. Strive for that perfect 10!

Sincerely,

Shannon M. Tonelli

2010 Class President

Dear Seniors,

Congratulations! It is truly an honor to write a letter to the Class of 2010. I am so happy and excited for all of you! You have all made it through college and I hope it has been the best years of your lives. Some of you will be going to graduate school, some of you will be working, and some of you might be off traveling the world! Whatever you will be doing after college, I hope it is filled with excitement. I hope everything you do in life has meaning and is what you love. As always, there are a few do's and don'ts for the future. Don't ever settle for less, make every moment of life your best moment and live your life to the fullest. Laugh and smile. Whether you are laughing at yourself or at something else, don't ever stop laughing. Have goals. Get that dream job! Have a happy and successful life! Follow your heart. Always stay true to yourself. Love yourself so that you can love others. Finally, be happy. No matter where life takes you and no matter how hard life may be, always be happy.

I will truly miss this class. In the three years I have been at Regis, I have come to know many of you and I am a very lucky person for that. I hope that each and every one of you does great things after Regis and that you continue to be the wonderful people you are. Always remember to keep the spirit of Regis pride in you in all of your future endeavors. Good luck and congratulations Class of 2010. You did it!

Sincerely,

A Letter from the Yearbook Editors

To the Class of 2010,

We did it! We have finally reached the pinnacle of our academic legacy. For some of you, this might be the end of your scholarly career (at least for now). For others, you are right in the middle of it. We would like you to take some time and look through this yearbook, for this is everyone's legacy. As editors, we hope that you will enjoy this yearbook, for it will always remind you of your time here at Regis. The process was long, hard and time consuming, but we hope we have represented our time here well.

We will still continue to write our legacies after we graduate and move on, but we will never forget where our story started. Regis College, thank you for shaping us into who we are today. Class of 2010, our story is a long one; be prepare to continue writing your own legacy and the legacy that is Regis College.

Cordially,

Maria E. Pino Meghan K. Roan

The History of Regis College

Regis College is a Catholic liberal arts and science institution that was established in 1927 by the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Boston. After decades of being an all women's college, men were admitted into the undergraduate programs in the fall of 2007.

Placed in the idyllic hills of Weston, Massachusetts, Regis College is an architectural gem that is complimented by countless traditions of beauty. The school itself stands on a former estate on 132 beautiful acres.
With over 25 undergraduate programs, teaching licensure and pre-professional programs, Regis provides a unique learning experience. Small classes and a tightly knit community connects students, faculty and staff in an engaged environment.

With the motto, "Your potential is infinite. Free it," Regis has captured the essence of the whole person. Focusing on the importance of community service and involvement; the countless clubs and organizations; and NCAA Division III athletics help individuals find their personal niche.

Hoop Rolling

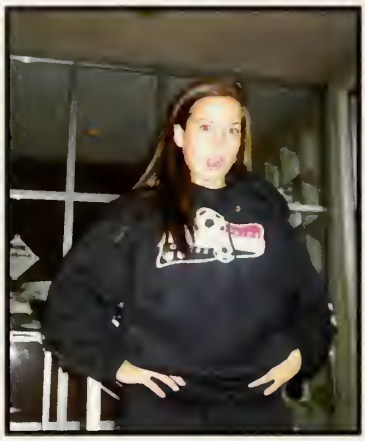
In 1927, Regis College adopted the tradition of Hoop Rolling by having the senior class roll the large hoops from their skirts down the Morrison House front lawn. The first woman to cross the finish line and win the race was believed to be the first one in her class that would get married. As the years passed, the tradition has evolved but the importance of this event has not changed. Skirt hoops have been replaced by drum hoops and now, the first student to win the race is said to become the most successful or the first person in the class to get a job following graduation.

Winners for Hoop Rolling:
Alanna DelRose, Fastest Hoop
Maria Pino, Best Looking Hoop
Katie Bradford, Most Unique Hoop
Shannon Tonelli, Most Regis Spirit

Cap and Gown

The Class of 2010 celebrated together during the Cap and Gown Ceremony. On this special evening, seniors were given their caps and gowns. This event symbolizes the beginning of their last year as undergraduate students.

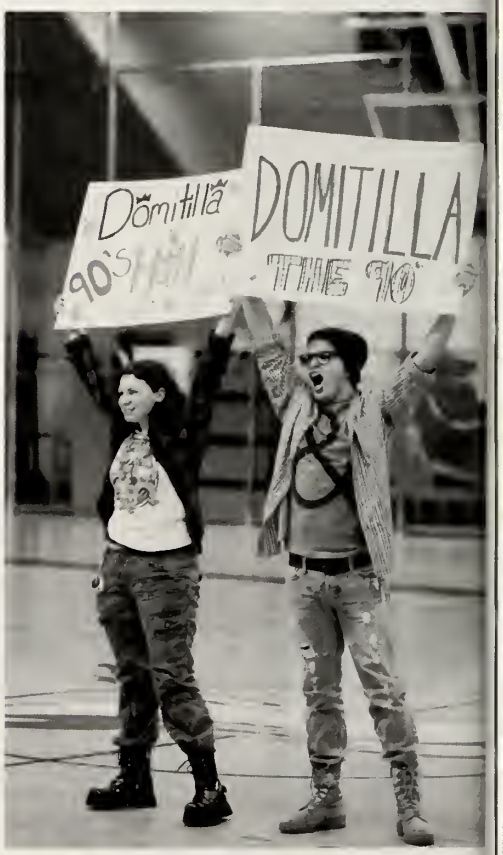
Family and friends attending were overjoyed. The senior class has become more unified because of the enduring support they have received from their family, friends and faculty. The event is a memorable chapter for the Class of 2010. Seniors shared their stories with one another and looked toward their future after Regis with optimism and hope. The legacy of this class will live on throughout the Regis community.



Regis Traditions

Homecoming Rally

This year Homecoming Weekend started on October 15, 2009. The annual rally was held in the Athletic Center. Students, athletes and faculty joined together to watch performances and show their spirit. Each of the fall teams was honored and presented in front of packed bleachers.



Snowball 2009

December 5, 2009 marked the annual winter semi-formal Snowball. Students dressed up and celebrated the upcoming holiday season in the Fine Arts Center Atrium with friends by dancing the night away. As customary, the Atrium was decorated with Christmas lights and a large Christmas tree. This year's theme was based on the popular movie Titanic. All and all, Snowball is one of the final events on campus before leaving for winter break. Surrounded by friends on a cold winter night, Snowball was an evening to remember.

Christmas Tree Lighting

Our Christmas Tree Lighting was held on December 14, 2009. For seniors, this is a tradition that is highly anticipated. On this evening, the seniors are recognized and given a blessing. Seniors gather in the College Hall Chapel before entering the Foyer. Underclassmen, faculty and staff bless the seniors and then the campus is illuminated for the Christmas season. After the ceremony, students enjoyed the chocolate fondue bar and munched on snacks. It was a wonderful event for the Regis College Community.

The Regis Pride

Field Hockey

Returning home to a brand new turf field, the Regis College Field Hockey team was ready to begin their season. With only seven returning players in August and many new members who had never played field hockey before, the team knew the journey would not be easy. However, as a team, and more important, as a family, they would make this ride an unforgettable one. Senior Captain Maria Mendes made sure her last season with the team would be the most memorable. Senior Maria Pino kept the Pride's spirits up with a new joke before every game and senior Tatjana Dottin never failed to laugh at all of them. These three leaders demonstrated that the team was united and truly supported one another. As the field hockey team expands in the future, the seniors of 2010 wish them the best of luck.

Women's Tennis

Facing fierce competition, the Regis Women found difficulty on the court. In both The Commonwealth Coast Conference and non-conference play, the Pride went winless as a program, but individual players were able to excel and gain conference recognition. For the second consecutive year, junior Megan McCarthy was named TCCC Player of the Year. With a 22-1 overall collegiate record, McCarthy has been able to carry a young Pride and begin to build a conference contender. Sophomores Georgia Cowart and Alexandria Kuchera also improved immensely as the season concluded. The Pride Women's Tennis set their eyes on the 2010 season and the potential that it holds.

Women's Soccer

The Women's Soccer Program faced an uphill climb in the Fall of 2009 and had opportunities to display great character in the face of adversity. The Pride returned merely ten rostered athletes from the 2008 season including just seven starters. Nevertheless, the continuation of rebuilding the program produced some positive strides toward the future of the program and resulted in some milestones for a group of very dedicated senior athletes.

A difficult preseason off-campus schedule and limited experience resulted in a slow start for the Pride. Seniors Molly Galvin, Marie Kong, Meghan Roan, Shannon Tonelli, and Janelle Welsh groomed a young squad toward a focus of unity, often showing selflessness for the betterment of the team. Roan, Tonelli, and Welsh each capped off four-year careers with the best efforts of their careers. Roan's five goals on the season pushed her career mark to 25 and second all-time in Regis history. In addition, freshman Ashley Hibbard displayed signs of future offensive production, tallying four goals on the year despite splitting time as goalkeeper. Once again, the Regis Women re-established themselves as the brightest group in The Commonwealth Coast Conference, claiming their fifth Team Academic Award from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America in six years. No other soccer team (men or women) in the TCCC earned the Award in 2009. No other women's team in the TCCC has claimed as many (5) in the history of the Award.

Men's Soccer

The Men's Soccer Team continued to make progress as it builds toward its goal of being a perennial competitor in The Commonwealth Coast Conference. With an overtime win over Colby-Sawyer and an exciting victory at Gordon College, Regis put itself on the map as a team not to be taken lightly on any given day. Sophomore Captain Andrew Lamacchia again finished in the top 5 in the country in total saves with 168. Captains Shawn McDonough, Ricky Guyette and Wade Thongsythavong look to lead the young Pride into a successful future.

The 2009 Volleyball team had another year of great successes. With an overall record of 8-26, the Pride posted some very impressive victories throughout the season, including a 3-0 victory of TCCC opponent Wentworth Institute of Technology. The Pride found themselves once again in the Quarterfinals against Endicott College. In a disappointing 3-0 loss the Pride was a strong team led by three senior athletes, Alanna DelRose, Mandy Hoyt, and Melissa Frederique. The future of the team looks bright with strong performances by sophomores Domingas Gomes and Lilian Silva.

Men's Volleyball

The Men's Volleyball inaugural season as a varsity sport has shown huge potential. Under the coaching of newly hired Jason Conetta, the young team with only one upperclassman, James Guaragna, set their eyes on creating a foundation for the future of the program at Regis. Competing in the New England Collegiate Conference, the Pride found rigorous competition in their first season. With a few wins under their belts, the team plans for greatness in the coming seasons.

Women's Basketball

The Regis College Women's Basketball program has had a very successful year. Regis Women's Basketball returned Jessica Page, an all conference 2nd team award winner and 1000 point scorer, to the line-up. In addition, the team returned many players from the 2009 season and added several new players. The team used an attacking style of offense to pressure opponents and earn a birth to the Commonwealth Coast Conference Tournament for the third consecutive year. The team also earned an ECAC Tournament bid.

Men's Basketball

The 2009-2010 Regis Men's Basketball season was filled with excitement. We returned all 5 starters from last year's team, including 11 upperclassmen. The squad was led by our captains, seniors Jesse Vega and James Cooper, and juniors Derrick Neal and Phil Alibrandi. Junior Jimmy Irmiter added outside shooting for the team, and sophomore Ta'Keame Gomes contributed a lot of scoring and energy from the bench. Two newcomers, transfer Darrin Kelley and freshman Ndubisi Ezeigwe, provided even more depth for an already experienced team.

Our team had one goal as the season went on: Make the TCCC playoffs for the first time in its young history. The Pride consistently battled adversity and never gave up on this mission; there were countless comebacks from behind throughout the season. No matter what the score was, no opponent could count us out of a game. This team showed tremendous heart throughout the year and became a very exciting team to watch compete.

Track and Field

The 2009-2010 seasons launched a new era for the Indoor and Outdoor Track & Field Teams. Already boasting a successful women's program, 2009-2010 marked the inaugural year for an accompanying men's varsity program. Trail blazers for this squad were led by juniors Nathan Fagundo and Schallum Dorleans, and freshmen Brad Hastings and Nnamdie Nosike, who set a number of school records in the long jump, high jump, and sprinting events. The women also continued to perform well, qualifying athletes for the Division III New England Track & Field Championship and rewriting the all-time Regis College Track Performance List. Veteran leaders of the team included Kate Haslam, Jessica Johnson, and Samantha LaFrance.

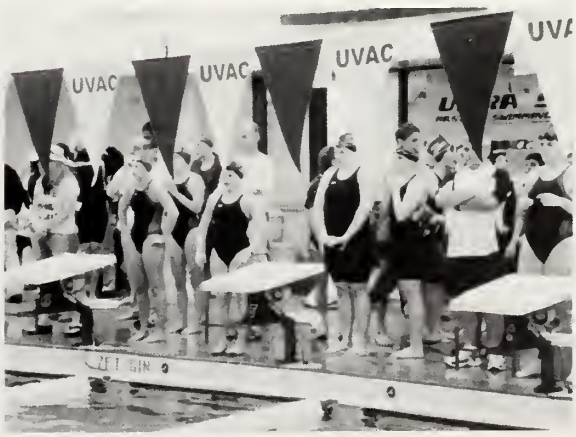
Men's Team- Douglas Dunbar, Michael Kaplan, Darren Laforest, Stephen McGovern, Michael Moriarty, Benjamin Perry, Mike Vazquez, Nick Yerzyk

The 2009-2010 swimming season was another step forward for the Pride. Coming off a season where every single member of the team swam a lifetime best, it was almost unfair to expect the same this year. However, the swimmers more than rose to the challenge. The leadership that was demonstrated by our student-athletes in and around the pool was fantastic, and this translated into a culture of hard work and commitment. The men set several college records while members of the women's team posted some of the top 10 times in Regis College Swimming history The team has taken off with the phrase "rebirth of dominance." The team is swimming faster, and that translates into a higher level of self confidence in their personal endeavors.



Men's Tennis

After almost 2 years as a club team, the Regis Men's Tennis Program began its first varsity season this spring. This year's team is small, just six members, but all have embraced the mantra – Regis Men's Tennis: The Tradition Begins With Us. The players have worked hard to improve their technical skills and their tactical ability. The team started with five weeks of practice last fall and began second semester with indoor practices 3 days a week.

The ream has made tremendous progress in a very short period of time. Matt Smolko and Sophorn Choephel are the program's first two true recruits. Matt played on his high school varsity team for 4 years.

The idea of developing a tradition of success has been the team's primary message to the players – success not measured by the number of wins but by how we compete! The team fights for every point and opponents will remember that Regis Men's Tennis players are tough competitors. With a young squad, the only expectation for the first varsity season is to compete well.

The 2010 Season started off in full swing. The team headed down to Florida for a series of games, and met serious competition. After returning with only one win on their travels, the Regis Women headed back to Regis where a brand new facility awaited them. Throughout the season, the team developed and grew with their first year coach, Lisa LeVierge. Posting some impressive results and gaining conference recognition, the future looks bright for the Regis College Softball Team. Graduating two seniors, Katie Bradford and Elizabeth Kluchnick, the impact of these two players carried the Pride and will set the pace for the 2011 Season.

Women's Lacrosse

The Women's Lacrosse Program re-emerged on the Regis Campus in Spring 2010. Four athletes remained from the Spring 2008 roster that last represented Regis at the varsity level. Among them, two seniors, Maria Pino and Tara Jackson joined juniors Alycia Murray and Diana Mariano as the varsity experience for the young group.

The Regis attack was bolstered by a sophomore tandem of Teresa Crevier, Jennifer Jones, and Evonne Orozco. The three were supported by the aggressiveness of Pino and Mariano. As a new member to The Commonwealth Coast Conference, the Pride turned some heads week in and week out, producing strong competitive efforts each time they took the field. The defensive core was anchored by a pair of sound goalkeepers. Murray joined Jillian DeFrancesco as net-minders behind an intimidating group of specialists. Senior pair Julie Gallagher and Jill Perry mentored a number of first years, including Erica Maloney, Melissa Choz, and Ashley Hibbard.

Boasting a group that included seven first years and three sophomores, the Pride enjoyed a productive growing year, and 2011 will prove to be a shift in conference competitiveness.

The Regis Men's Lacrosse Team participated in its first varsity season in the spring of 2010. The players worked hard and made significant strides throughout the season. The team had several freshmen who earned starting spots, and even though there were some growing pains, the sky is the limit for the future of the program.

The ban was Obama's first step toward closing the prisons at Guantanamo Bay. ONE WEEK LATER, the president signed a labor act guaranteeing equal pay for all workers. Regarding the act, Obama explained that he saw the inequality as a family issue, not just a women's issue. ATTENTION TO THE ECONOMY brought the $787 billion economic stimulus package in the form of February's American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, controversial legislation which the administration claimed sparked growth as early as the third quarter. A TOTAL TROOP WITHDRAWAL from Iraq by the end of 2011 was announced on February 27, and just a month later Obama announced a renewed commitment to Afghanistan and plans to send an additional 21,000 new troops there. LONDON'S G-20 SUMMIT allowed leaders from nations worldwide, as well as regional groups and international institutions, to strategize ways to revive the global economy and stimulate growth.

With the help of upperclassmen Tyler Hansbrough, Wayne Ellington, Ty Lawson and Danny Green, all of whom opted to return for another year with coach Roy Williams rather than heading to the NBA, the Tarheels cruised to their fifth national title and their second in five years. A unanimous pre-season No. 1, the team was UNC's first since 1982 to start and finish the year in the nation's top spot. CONFICKER WORM, a computer virus that targeted the Microsoft Windows operating system, was estimated to have infected more than 15 million computers. It was believed to be the worst computer virus since the SQL slammer worm in 2003. In February 2009, Microsoft offered a $250,000 reward for help with finding and arresting the people who created the computer worm.

FLUSHOTS

FLU SHOT CLINICS were set up in workplaces and schools from coast to coast as the government and the CDC suggested that as many people as possible be vaccinated against the H1N1 virus that led to hundreds of school closings in the spring of 2009. AN EARLY START to the flu season meant victims were affected in higher numbers and more extremely than usual, and that the flu's peak activity came in late October and early November rather than March. Until the vaccine arrived, anyone with H1N1's potential respiratory symptoms was encouraged to stay home rather than infecting classmates or co-workers. IN OCTOBER, the vaccine began arriving in both injected and nasal spray forms. Within four months, 97 million H1N1 vaccine doses had been given to 86 million people in the United States. TRULY PANDEMIC, the H1N1 influenza infected approximately 57 million Americans or slightly more than 18 percent of the population between April 2009 and February 2010. About 11,690 people died and nearly 260,000 were hospitalized from the viral infection, which was also known as swine flu. THE THREAT of an additional outbreak loomed as the annual flu season waned.

Data showed a loss of 8.4 million jobs since the recession's start in December 2007. THE UNDER-EMPLOYMENT RATE of workers whose hours had been cut or who were working part-time for lack of full-time positions hit 17% – the highest since they began tracking the category in 1994. FORECLOSURE FILINGS in the third quarter hit a record high. Despite government-led and lender-supported relief efforts, nearly a million U.S. homes – 1 in every 136 nationwide – were in foreclosure by October. FEDERAL RESERVE CHAIRMAN Ben Bernanke announced September 15 that the recession had "very likely ended" while warning that it may not quickly affect the unemployment rate.

A YANKEES WORLD SERIES WIN gave the team its 27th championship with a 7-3 victory over the Phillies in Game 6. Hideki Matsui, the first Japanese-born player to be named a Series M.V.P., led the Yankees' offense with six runs batted in off a homer, a single and a double. The last Yankees' title was in 2000. THE FIRST STATE DINNER hosted by President and Mrs. Obama toasted a growing U.S. friendship with India with an evening of regal pageantry on the White House South Lawn on November 24. Visiting Indian Prime Minister Manmohan Singh and his wife Gursharan Kaur were honored guests alongside 300 others. A tradition dating back to 1874, state dinners were the most treasured and formal honor a U.S. president could offer a foreign dignitary, and the most coveted invitation in Washington. Unbeknownst to the Obamas and to the Secret Service, a Virginia couple, Tareq and Michaele Salahi, entered the dinner without an invitation, bypassing all security checkpoints. SHOOTINGS AT FORT HOOD killed 13 and injured 30 on November 5. Major Nidal Malik Hasan opened fire on fellow soldiers at the Fort Hood U.S. Army base in Texas; some reports suggested he was unhappy about an upcoming deployment. NASCAR'S LONGEST STREAK of consecutive series championships belonged to Jimmie Johnson, who surpassed Cale Yarbrough when he clinched his fourth title in a row, winning seven races in back-to-back seasons. OPRAH'S PLANS to retire when her current contract expires were announced nearly two years in advance of her final show. Media mogul/talk show host/philanthropist Oprah Winfrey said she will end her daily talk show in 2011. The show, which attracted more than seven million viewers a day, had been on the air since 1984. SIGNS OF WATER ON THE MOON were confirmed without question in November when a satellite intentionally crashed into a crater near the moon's South Pole. Using a two-part satellite, scientists said they created a collision, then measured the debris it created. The discovery was good news for explorers who wanted to set up labs on the lunar surface and to the scientists who hoped that the water, in the form of ancient ice, would reveal information about the history of the solar system.

HEALTHCARE

HEALTH CARE REFORM was a priority for President Obama and the Democratic leaders of Congress. In November, they came close to creating a comprehensive system of national health insurance when the House approved an overhaul of the system, 220 votes to 215. MAX BAUCUS, Senate Finance Committee chairman, had presented a plan that included many new insurance industry regulations but no government-run health care. The Democrat from Montana believed his bill could bring together Republicans and Democrats for an ambitious overhaul of health care. TEA PARTY PROTESTS sprung up from coast to coast, providing a platform for citizens wishing to speak their discontent. While groups of those who felt they could no longer sit still and quietly observe governmental changes that made them uncomfortable took on many traits, the newly empowered activists worked to be visible in many parts of the country. SENATE VOTES in November were followed by the Senate's approval of an $871 billion bill in December. While the two Congressional branches worked to reconcile their bills, it became apparent agreement was not imminent; the debate would continue for months.

HAITIAN EARTHQUAKE

DEATH AND DESTRUCTION were apparent immediately following the temblor which struck near Port-au-Prince, the capital city of Haiti. While fatality estimates topped 200,000, officials conceded that the burial of uncounted corpses would prohibit an exact tally. The quake, which was "felt strongly" in Cuba more than 200 miles away, damaged thousands of homes, including the president's residence. BUSH/CLINTON HAITI RELIEF FUND, designed to demonstrate American unity, raised more than $17 million in under two weeks. In the month following the quake, American charities sent more than $790 million in charitable aid. WYCLEF JEAN, GEORGE CLOONEY & FRIENDS hosted concerts in New York, Los Angeles and London to raise funds for earthquake victims. Called "Hope for Haiti Now: A Global Benefit for Earthquake Relief," the January 22 concerts included performances by Bruce Springsteen, Madonna, Mary J. Blige, Taylor Swift, Justin Timberlake, Coldplay and Bono. In addition, a remake of the 25-year-old anthem "We Are the World," featuring more than 70 big names representing all genres of music, was recorded to benefit Haitian aid groups.

JAMES CAMERON'S AVATAR broke all kinds of records en route to becoming the highest grossing film of all time. Development of the science fiction epic spanned 15 years, partially because Cameron had previously determined that the necessary technology was not yet available to portray his visions for the film. Released for both traditional two-dimension projection and 3-D, Avatar was also the first film ever to gross $2 billion, and it was nominated for nine Academy Awards, including Best Picture and Best Director. TIGER WOODS was named the Associated Press Athlete of the Decade in December. Despite a personal scandal that led to an indefinite break from professional golf, he collected nearly as many votes as runners-up Lance Armstrong and Roger Federer combined. Woods won 64 tournaments including 12 majors and earned more than $81 million during the decade. A TERRORIST ATTACK on a December 25 Northwest Airlines flight from Amsterdam to Detroit was thwarted after a student with suspected al-Qaida ties attempted to ignite explosives in flight. FIFA WORLD CUP SOCCER tickets went on sale globally, adding more than 1 million new seats to those nearly 700,000 tickets already sold for the June/July soccer matches in South Africa. CONAN O'BRIEN left NBC and The Tonight Show on January 22, just eight months after he took the reins from Jay Leno. Despite ongoing unsuccessful negotiations with the network, O'Brien planned a busy last week hosting Robin Williams, Barry Manilow, Tom Hanks and Will Ferrell, and he took to the stage playing 70s rock anthem "Free Bird" with the band during the closing credits of his final show. THE U.S. HEALTH CARE REFORM BILL passed by the Senate on December 24 was expected to extend insurance coverage to 30 million additional Americans. Following the January 27 State of the Union Address where Obama vowed not to "walk away from" his drive for health insurance reform, additional modifications were made to the White House's proposed health care plan in preparation for a February 25 televised bipartisan health care summit. The six-hour summit was covered on C-SPAN and was the day's news focus.

SNOW BLANKETED THE NATION, encompassing all 50 states on February 13 after a dusting on the Florida panhandle. Hawaii did not receive new snow, but had a base at the peaks of the state's highest volcanoes. Record snowfall affected many parts of the country this winter, from the Midwest where 50-year-old records for most days with 4" or more of snow cover were smashed by more than five weeks, to the mid-Atlantic states where record snowfalls from December to February broke 100-year-old seasonal snowfall records the first week in February. BEYONCÉ WON SIX GRAMMYS, including Song of the Year for "Single Ladies (Put a Ring on It)," and became the first woman to win six awards in the same night. Only Michael Jackson (1984) and Carlos Santana (2000) had won more awards in a single year. APPLE'S iPAD RELEASED on January 27 to mixed reviews. The new "digital tablet" brings Apple's sleek design and functionality to the masses for an affordable price. Weighing just 1.5 pounds, the iPad is lighter than a laptop, but users will be able to browse the web, access email, watch movies, read books and more. Nearly 2,650 athletes from 82 nations competed in 15 sports and 89 separate medal events. SPEEDSKATER APOLO ANTON OHNO added three new medals to his previous five Olympic medals from Salt Lake City and Turin. Ohno broke Bonnie Blair's record, becoming the most decorated American Winter Olympian ever. TWO-TIME WORLD CUP CHAMPION LINDSEY VONN became the first American female to win Olympic downhill gold. Vonn skied all five of her scheduled events with a bruised shin, medaling in two. SNOWBOARDER SHAUN WHITE defended his Olympic gold in the halfpipe with a first run so strong he secured his victory. In a celebratory second run, he debuted a Double McTwist 1260 (which he named The Tomahawk). The new trick contributed to a record score of 48.4, increasing his margin of victory by 1.6 points.

TILIKUM THE ORCA was not in the pool when SeaWorld Orlando's show, Believe: The Sensational Shamu Show, reopened just three days after the six-ton orca attacked and drowned veteran trainer Dawn Brancheau on February 24. The show featured trainers using hand signals to instruct the whales to leap, twirl and wave to or splash the audience. AN OVERTIME VICTORY in hockey gave Canada the Olympic gold the host nation craved on the last day of Winter Games. The 3-2 win over Team U.S.A. came 7:40 into the extra period when 22-year-old Sidney Crosby sent goalie Ryan Miller a surprise wrist shot. Miller was the series M.V.P. and Crosby, a native of Nova Scotia, became the youngest ever captain of a Stanley Cup-winning team in 2009, when his Pittsburgh Penguins beat the Detroit Red Wings four games to three. CANADA'S JOANNIE ROCHETTE captured viewers' hearts, competing in women's figure skating after her mother succumbed to a heart attack in Vancouver just days before. The 24-year-old from Quebec took bronze and became one of the most personal stories of the Vancouver Games. Korea's Yu-Na Kim became her country's first-ever Olympic figure skating medalist when she broke the 200-point mark and captured the gold medal. AN ICEBERG COLLISION WITH ANTARCTICA dislodged another massive block of ice from the continent in February. The original iceberg, known as B9B, measured 60 miles in length and had broken free from Antarctica more than 20 years ago. The new iceberg weighed in at roughly 700 billion tons and, at 48 x 24 miles, contained the equivalent of one fifth of the world's annual total water usage. The two icebergs drifted together off the east coast of Antarctica. U.S. BOBSLED GOLD ended a 62-year Olympic drought for America when two-time World Champion Night Train pilot Steve Holcomb with crew Justin Olsen and Steve Mesler and brakeman Curtis Tomasevicz dominated action in Whistler. The win meant Germany's Andre Lange, who took gold in the two-man race, failed in his attempt to capture five Olympic golds in as many attempts. AN 8.8 EARTHQUAKE IN CHILE on February 27 toppled buildings, left more than 300 dead and caused tsunami evacuations as far away as Hawaii and Japan. While the quake was significantly more powerful than the Haitian temblor that caused massive devastation in January, the damage was minimized by its relatively deep epicenter and strict Chilean building codes that followed massive damage caused by a huge quake in 1960.
